2 PM - 5 PM

Event Title Bridging Cultures: Navigating Disputes through ADR Practices in Malaysia

Organisers

TUANG, CHU & CO
Advocates & Solicitors

Programme/Outline

2.00pm

Topic 1 - Impact of CIPAA 2012 on Contractor Cash Flow Management:

It has been a decade since CIPAA 2012 has been implemented. Evaluate the effectiveness of CIPAA 2012 in improving cash flow management for contractors in Malaysia's construction industry. Discuss the key provisions of the Act and their practical implications for contractors and whether prospective legislative reforms are necessary to improve its efficiency to ensure parliamentary intentions are observed.

3.00pm

Topic 2 - Construction / Commercial Disputes: Choosing Between Arbitration and Court Litigation :

Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of resolving commercial/construction disputes through arbitration compared to court proceedings in Malaysia. Consider factors such as cost, speed, expertise of decision-makers, and enforceability of awards and whether from an economic perspective, is arbitration to way moving forward to determine and/or resolving disputes between parties? This topic provides a framework for exploring the appropriateness of arbitration versus court as the legal forum for different types of disputes in Malaysia, allowing for in-depth discussions on the advantages, disadvantages, and practical considerations involved in each forum. Therefore, participants will be informed on whether arbitration clauses ought to be included in their respective contracts.

4.00pm

Topic 3 - Dispute Avoidance - What are the ADR mechanisms to prevent disputes

The true essence of conflict resolution lies in preventing conflicts from erupting in the first place. This talk aims to illuminate the crucial role that proactive conflict prevention plays in fostering healthy relationships and achieving sustainable outcomes, while also underscoring the transformative power of ADR, through mediation, negotiation, pre-dispute clauses in resolving conflicts when they do occur.

- 9:00am ● WELCOMING REMARKS FOR BORNEO ADR WEEK
- 9:05am ● OPENING REMARKS FOR BORNEO ADR WEEK
- 9:15am ● KEYNOTE ADDRESS
- 9:30am ● SPECIAL ADDRESS
- 9:40am ● Coffee Break
- 10:00am ● SESSION 1: Claiming For Liquidated Damages "AND/OR" General Damages in Construction Contract
 It is common for construction contract to set out liquidated damages. Does that mean that the amount stated is the maximum available limit? Is an injured party entitled to additionally or alternatively claim for general damages? The panellists will discuss the fundamental principles in liquidated damages and general damages and address whether the injured party would be entitled to claim for both liquidated damages and general damages concurrently.
- 11:10am ● SESSION 2: Can Contractors Use ChatGPT or AI in Preparing Construction Claims or Writing Correspondences and Notices Required Under the Construction Contract?
 With the increasing importance in notice requirements and condition precedents in construction contract, such "often-overlooked paperworks" could significantly impact the contractor's rights to claim. Our panellists will share their thoughts and views on the use of ChatGPT or AI in construction contract management.
- 12:20pm ● PRESENTATION TOPIC 1
- 12:30pm ● Lunch Break
- 13:50pm ● SESSION 3: The Conundrum in Choosing the Seat and Venue of Arbitration For Construction Projects in the Borneo Region
 In Masenang Sdn Bhd v Sabanilam Enterprise Sdn Bhd [2021] 6 MLJ 255, the Federal Court held that: "Issue 3: Whether, in the context of there being two separate territorial jurisdictions in Malaysia, the seat of a domestic arbitration may be a state or a territory within Malaysia. [185] Yes, the seat of a domestic arbitration will be a place within Malaysia. The seat of a domestic arbitration cannot simply be said to be Malaysia. The seat is usually specified to be, for example, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, or Kota Kinabalu, Malaysia, or Penang, Malaysia, as the parties see fit to choose in their arbitration agreement or as determined by the arbitral tribunal pursuant to s 22 of the AA." In this session, panellists will discuss the implications of the Masenang case and highlight the crucial considerations for parties to select the seat and venue of arbitration for construction projects in the Borneo region.

- 15:40pm ● SESSION 4: Should We "CIPAA" or Not?
 The Construction Claims and Payment Adjudication Act 2012 has been in force for a decade since 15 April 2014. Does it still function as an effective mechanism for contractors to claim for non-payment or serve as a tool for a lengthy legal process? Should an unpaid party initiate a CIPAA claim, or should the unpaid party consider other form of dispute resolution mechanism such as mediation, arbitration or court litigation?
- 16:50pm ● Closing Remarks for Borneo ADR Week
- 17:00pm ● Networking Session
